GENERAL INFORMATION

THE PROPERTY

A superbly presented and refurbished semi-detached cottage that offers character and charming accommodation throughout, situated in the much-favoured village of Newton Solney. Having sash style windows, exposed brickwork, latched doors and period style fixtures and fittings, this superior residence offers gas centrally heated and double-glazed accommodation that includes a lounge with a brick fire surround, separate dining room, a refurbished kitchen with solid quartz work surfaces, a Belfast sink, and high-end integrated appliances. To the first floor are two bedrooms, the master having a feature exposed brick chimney breast and fitted wardrobes, and a period style modernised bathroom.

Outside, to the front is a small fore garden edged with a boundary wall and having a path leading to the side door and opening into the attractively landscaped low maintenance rear garden with superb timber garden pod with bar, separate wi-fi hub and electrics. A great place to use as an home office and well as entertaining guests.

LOCATION

The award winning village of Newton Solney boasts village inns, primary school, church, recreational park and village hall.
