LOCATION

The village of Weston Underwood is very pleasant and is set in the heart of open Derbyshire countryside, some 7 miles to the north west of Derby city centre and some 7 miles from the famous Market Town of Ashbourne, known as the gateway to the Peak District National Park.

A further point of note is the fact that The Cock Inn at Mugginton has undergone refurbishment and is part of a small group providing superb public house and restaurant facilities.

The village of Duffield is approximately 4 miles away and provides an excellent range of amenities including a variety of shops, good schooling (the property is in the catchment area of the noted Ecclesbourne School), local train and bus services and recreational facilities including squash, tennis and Kedleston Park Golf Course.

Carsington Reservoir provides sailing and trout fishing. Kedleston Park Golf Course is approximately midway between Derby and Weston Underwood. There is also a very highly rated primary school in the village of Mugginton, approximately 1 mile distance.
