GENERAL INFORMATION

THE PROPERTY

Scargill Mann & Co present to the market this superbly positioned detached residence featuring an open aspect to the front, a private driveway, a detached double garage with ample parking for vehicles, and four double bedrooms. This fabulously positioned home must be viewed to appreciate its location. Built-in a Georgian style with high ceilings and sash-style windows, the property offers well-presented interiors with modern colour schemes throughout. This property will not disappoint.

An inspection will reveal an L-shaped hallway with a large dual-aspect lounge that offers French doors opening out into the garden. There is also a lovely dining kitchen with quartz worktops, a pantry cupboard, and a further storage cupboard ideal for hoovers and outdoor coats. From the hallway, there is access to the ground-floor guest cloakroom and a study.

On the first floor are four lovely double bedrooms with far-reaching views to the front . a spacious family bathroom and ensuite to the principal bedroom.

Outside, the property sits in a quiet location with a private driveway serving just three further properties and offering a lovely open aspect to the front. An ample-sized driveway provides parking for at least four cars and leads to a detached brick-built double garage. A gate from the driveway gives access to the landscaped rear garden with patio areas and an undercover veranda great for entertaining. There is a lawn and raised shrub beds.

Heritage Park sits within the desirable and historic village of Tutbury, with its pretty High Street full of boutique-style shops, cafes, bars, restaurants, a flower shop, and hairdressers' and beauty salons. The village is served by a good primary school, a church, a doctor's surgery, a dentist, a pharmacy, and an optician. In the nearby village of Hatton are supermarkets, a butchers and a train station.

For those requiring travel , the A38 and

A50 offer access to Lichfield, Birmingham, Derby, Uttoxeter and Stoke on Trent
