Built in the late 1960s and set in 2.5 acres of private gardens and grounds, the property has been thoughtfully designed to provide an inviting, functional, flexible living space, perfect for families or those seeking a tranquil retreat.

As you enter, you are greeted by a welcoming hallway that gracefully wraps around a central inner courtyard. Full-length glazed doors give access to the courtyard, which features a composite decking area ideal for enjoying a sheltered morning coffee. The elegant parquet flooring adds a touch of sophistication to the entrance, setting the tone for the rest of the home.

The property boasts three generous reception rooms, including a magnificent garden lounge with stunning views and access to the beautifully landscaped gardens and patio areas from three sides. A contemporary log burner enhances this space, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere for relaxation and entertaining on cooler days.

The property features a dining room or sitting room with an open fire set in a charming stone fire surround for more formal occasions. Patio doors lead directly into the garden, allowing for seamless indoor-outdoor living. Additionally, a cosy snug with a full-height glazed window offers a perfect spot to unwind while enjoying the picturesque views of the rear garden.

At the heart of the home lies a bespoke breakfast kitchen crafted by Mark Wilkinson. The kitchen cabinets have granite and oak worktops, a comprehensive range of base cupboards, and a central island unit, ideal for a cooking enthusiast. The presence of an Aga elevates the cooking experience and adds a touch of character to the space. A glass roof lantern further enriches the kitchen with natural light, creating a warm and welcoming environment. A walk-in pantry offers further storage.

Convenience is key, and the property offers a useful utility room with ample space for a washing machine and dryer, a storage cupboard for hoovers and ironing boards, and additional appliance space if required. There is also a gardener's shower room.

The property features a well-designed bedroom wing, where the generous principal bedroom awaits. This tranquil retreat boasts stunning views over the garden, with patio doors leading out into the garden. A luxurious en suite bathroom complements it with a bath with mixer taps having a shower attachment, hand wash basin, and WC.

There are three further double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes. Two look out to the side garden, and the fourth bedroom looks out to the front.

Completing the accommodation is the luxury family bathroom, which is superbly equipped with a large walk-in shower with a waterfall and handheld shower heads, a fitted WC, and a hand wash basin. The surrounds are attractively tiled. A linen storage cupboard also houses the domestic hot water and central heating boiler.
